CASE Collaborative Community News

Dear Parents/Guardians,

With the unfavorable trending in the number of COVID cases and increased percentage of positive tests, we are delaying making any decisions about offering increased in-person learning until the situation stabilizes and the data are more favorable. Any changes are dependent on the decisions of local districts as well as DESE and DPH guidance. We are actively monitoring the situation and will continue to keep you informed.

CASE is committed to being prudent in our efforts to empower families and help navigate some of the challenges resulting from COVID-19. We are excited to announce that we will begin offering monthly workshops starting in mid-November. Our workshops and topics of discussion will be presented by various CASE staff as well as speakers from agencies who serve families of children with special needs. The workshops will be offered virtually via Zoom in the early evening hours. We have three topics/speakers identified for the months of November through January. We have listed the preliminary information below. More detailed information will follow shortly. We hope you will join us during our Zoom events!

November - Katharyn Vital, CASE Lead Nurse & Kellie Fitzgerald, CASE Classroom Nurse -
Topic of discussion will be "A Happy and Healthy Winter Season"

December - CASE Consultation, Education, and Training for Technology (CETT) Team -
Topic of Discussion will be "Zoom Classroom Tips"

January- Speaker TBD - Topic of Discussion will be 'Mindfulness Practice'

In closing, every October since 1996, the Massachusetts Down Syndrome Congress has been hosting its Buddy Walk & Family Festival to celebrate the Down Syndrome community and promote acceptance and inclusion. Held annually during National Down Syndrome Awareness Month, this signature walk continues to be the MDSC's largest public awareness and fundraising event. Check out the video link below to watch the debut of the 'Buddy Walk Dance Team' choreographed by Becky Robichaud - who is a parent to one of our former CASE students! Becky is also part of the very talented staff at 'The Dance Inn'. You can learn more about 'The Dance Inn' and adaptive dance lessons in the "Fun Activities and Recreation" section below. Enjoy!

Community Workshops and Conferences

FREE Online "Open" Q & A Helping Children & Teens Foster Friendships During COVID for Parents

When: October 27, 2020 | Tue 7:00 pm to 8:30 pm

Format: Virtually via Zoom

Jim Ross from the Widening the Circle project at the Arc of Massachusetts will speak and answer questions about ways to help our children and teens foster friendships under COVID-19 conditions. Jim Ross has worked in human services for 40+ years supporting people with disabilities. This work includes summer camps, disability-related information and referral, founding and directing a non-profit human service organization and providing direct care. Jim is currently co-coordinator of Widening the Circle, an Arc of Massachusetts project dedicated to helping bring people with and without disabilities together in deep and meaningful relationships. Jim has a life-long interest in supporting people with disabilities to participate fully in community life. He believes that people with and without disabilities should be together wherever they live, learn, work and play. Two of Jim's children have disabilities themselves, making this work intensely personal for him. Planning for Your Grandchild's Future

When: October 27, 2020 | Tue 7:00 pm to 8:00 pm

Format: Virtual via Zoom

COVID-19 has created significant stress for many families throughout the Commonwealth. Whether worrying about a child's education, their social and emotional well-being, or concerns about how to meet basic needs like food and shelter, this pandemic has affected all families in some way or another. As grandparents raising grandchildren, you have an additional worry: What will happen to my grandchild should I get sick or should something happen to me? The Commission on Grandparents Raising Grandchildren is offering a workshop to help grandparents and relative caregivers begin the discussion and process of planning for a grandchild's future. Register by emailing Colleen Pritoni at colleen.pritoni@state.ma.us. Please include any questions you may have ahead of the workshop.

Developmental Childhood Trauma Training for Caregivers

When: October 28, 2020 | Wed 6:30 pm to 9:30 pm

Transition and Beyond (ages 14-22)

Applying for SSI Benefits for a Child with Special Needs

If you are a parent of a child with special needs, you will know how much added cost your family experiences, from therapy, medical bills, house modifications, and more. A child with special needs may be able to receive ongoing monthly income from the Social Security Administration (SSA). If approved, benefits are paid through the Supplemental Security Income (SSI) program and can be used to cover a child's everyday needs as well as medical care, educational costs, and other expenses. Read on here on how to apply

45 of the Best Halloween Movies for Kids, According to Age

Snickers, Almond Joy, toothbrush...wait, what? Yep, we all know that a kid's trick-or-treating haul can be a mixed bag. It just so happens that Halloween festivities in general can be equally fraught with clear wins and dismal fails—like when your three-year-old starts talking about his costume in June and then realizes he's terrified of everything come October. Don't get us wrong, we love to dress up, carve pumpkins and eat candy—but when it comes to getting kids to feel the spooky holiday vibes (or satisfying them when they already do), this list of age-appropriate Halloween movies for kids might just come in handy. https://www.purewow.com/family/halloween-movies-for-kids?blm_aid=34829

MFA Beyond the Spectrum Art Activities go Virtual

When: Select Saturdays | Tue 10:30 am to 12:00 pm

Format: Virtually via Zoom

Beyond the Spectrum is a specially designed program for children and teens with Autism Spectrum Disorders. Online classes meet on select Saturdays from 10:30 am–12 pm. Each class lasts an hour and a half and combines close looking and discussion with an art-making activity. There are two separate programs offered.

Beyond the Spectrum (age 8–12)

Online classes offered for 8 to 12-year-olds feature close looking and discussion about artworks led by an experienced instructor, followed by a creative art-making workshop. Parents and caregivers are encouraged to participate. Classes meet one Saturday per month on Zoom.

Beyond the Spectrum Teen Studio (age 13–18)

Online classes offered for 13 to 18-year-olds focus on specific art topics and incorporate discussion, critical inquiry, and art making. Students will look at and discuss MFA artworks, and then work independently on a project with guidance from an experienced instructor. Caregivers and parents are welcome to attend and participate. Classes meet one Saturday per month on Zoom.
